WILD!!

2024 Fall Cub-a-Palooza

Leader's Guide

Welcome to the 2024 Fall Cub-a-Palooza! We hope your Cub Pack will decide to “Go WILD” with us!

Cub-a-Palooza is a 24-hour event that gives Cub Scouts the opportunity to work on camping requirements, including an overnight stay, along with many other fun activities.

We are excited to offer this new activity to our Cub Scout Packs and Families!

Your Cub-a-Palooza Directors,

Tracy McDaniels

Stephanie Sindel

ITEMS TO NOTE

- A few reminders, Camp Lakota is a non-smoking facility, including vaping. All other rules in the Guide to Safe Scouting will be followed, including the Buddy system, for the entirety of the campout.
- Youth Protection is of highest priority. Please make sure tent partners are no more than 2 years apart (unless sleeping with parents/family).
- Health Forms (required) - Go to www.BlackSwampBSA.org → Resources → Forms → “Annual Health and Medical Form” and download and complete Parts A & B for all participants (youth and adults).
